

Notes:

- The Motherboard should be made of 3.2mm/0.125" aluminium.
- The paired holes without dimensions are used in the original packs to connect the vacuum formed shells to the Motherboard.
- The three holes on the left seem to be used to mount the Powercell lights.
- The position of the upper frame attachment points is still unknown.

Motherboard

GB I Protonpack

Revision 0.97

Sheet 1